

Privacy Notice pursuant to Article 13 of EU Regulation 2016/679

This privacy notice is provided pursuant to Article 13 of EU Regulation 2016/679 concerning the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data, as well as the free movement of such data (hereinafter referred to as the "Regulation" or "GDPR"), and the current privacy regulations in force.

We hereby inform you that the data collected through the website <https://bitrock.it/> (including any linked third-level domains), managed by Bitrock S.r.l. as an independent Data Controller (hereinafter referred to as the "Controller"), will be processed in compliance with the principles outlined in Article 5 of the Regulation and ensuring the lawfulness of the processing as stated in Article 6 of the same Regulation.

In relation to the above, we therefore inform you of the following:

1. Identity and contact details of the Data Controller

The Data Controller for the aforementioned websites is Bitrock S.r.l., with its registered office at Via Tortona 4 - Milan 20144 (MI), and can be contacted at the email address admin@bitrock.it.

2. Data voluntarily provided by users

The optional, explicit, and voluntary submission of:

- Emails to the addresses provided on the aforementioned websites;
- Messages through the contact forms available;
- Resumes and spontaneous applications through the dedicated web portal;
- Submissions via the LinkedIn portal;

In addition to the provision of the following data:

- Basic technical data;
- Network data;
- Data related to website visits;
- Data collected through cookies and trackers;
- Analytical data.

This entails the subsequent acquisition of the sender's address or other personal data provided (including PDF files or photos), which will be used solely for the purposes requested by the data subject. For more details, please refer to the specific Privacy Notices prepared for each specific activity.

3. Browsing data and cookies

The aforementioned websites acquire, during their normal operation, certain personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols.

This information is not collected to be associated with identified individuals. Such data is used solely to obtain anonymous statistical information about the use of the site and to verify its correct functioning. The data could be used to determine responsibility in the event of potential cybercrimes against the site, but only upon request from the competent Public Authorities.

On our site, technical session cookies are used, which are not persistently stored on the user's device and disappear once the browsing session ends and the browser is closed. The use of such cookies is strictly limited to transmitting session identifiers (composed of random numbers generated by the server) necessary to enable safe and efficient exploration of the site. The session cookies used on this site avoid the use of other IT techniques that could compromise user privacy during browsing and, as stated, do not allow the acquisition of personal identification data.

Our IT systems do not use cookies to transmit personal information or persistent cookies of any kind, except for Google Analytics. Google Analytics is a web analytics service provided by Google Inc. It uses cookies stored on users' devices to enable aggregated and anonymous statistical analysis of user numbers and to determine which areas and content of the site are most frequently visited. This information allows us to make continuous improvements and updates to benefit users.

For further details, you can refer to the specific Browsing Data and Cookies Policy accessible by clicking on the additional component located at the bottom left of the browsing screen.

4. Scope of communication of personal data

Personal data may also be disclosed to external parties who are appointed or authorized by legal provisions, or who are bound to the Controller by specific relationships, including contractual ones. These parties may be entrusted by the Data Controller with certain activities, or parts thereof, that are functional to the purposes defined above, such as:

- Technological partners for the management of IT platforms and/or cloud services;
- Collaborators of the Data Controller who provide professional support and consultancy services.

Personal data will not be disseminated unless expressly consented to in advance by the data subject.

5. Methods of data processing

The processing of Personal Data will be carried out by personnel duly trained to comply with the applicable regulations, using manual, computer, or telematic tools suitable for ensuring security and confidentiality.

We also inform you that your Personal Data will be processed in accordance with the methods outlined in the Regulation, which stipulate, among other things, that the data must:

- be processed lawfully and fairly;
- be collected and recorded for specific, explicit, and legitimate purposes;
- be accurate and, where necessary, kept up to date;
- be relevant, complete, and not excessive in relation to the purposes of the processing;
- be stored in a form that allows the identification of the data subject for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which the data is collected or subsequently processed;
- be processed in accordance with standardized procedures established by a single supervisory authority ("Lead Authority"), identified with reference to the State where the Data Controller has its main establishment.

Furthermore, the Controller's business processes ensure the confidentiality and security of the information and its storage in compliance with legislative requirements and the necessary security measures.

6. Data Retention Period (Determination Criteria)

The personal data collected will be retained for the time strictly necessary to carry out the requested activities. For detailed specifications, please refer to the dedicated privacy notices available on the same website.

7. Recognized Rights

We inform you that, in compliance with current regulations, you are entitled to the following rights:

- To request access to your personal data from the Controller;
- To request the rectification of your data;
- To request the updating and deletion of your data if they are incomplete, incorrect, or unlawfully collected;
- To request that the processing be restricted to part of the information concerning you;
- To object to the processing of your data for legitimate reasons (even partially);
- To withdraw consent at any time without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent given prior to its withdrawal.

To exercise your rights, you may contact the Data Controller using the contact details provided above.

We also remind you that, if the response to your requests is deemed unsatisfactory, you have the right to contact and lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Authority (www.garanteprivacy.it) in accordance with the procedures set out in the applicable regulations.
